RIVAL UNIONS PLAN CINCINNATI MEETS

CIO Organizer Calls Mass Rally, A F of L Members Gather

By The Associated Press
CINCINNATI, May 21.—An attempt to settle the CIO and A F of L rivalry in Cincinnati today was frustrated by a mass rally of CIO organizers and a gathering of A F of L members.

The CIO organizers, led by John L. Lewis, held a mass rally at the Hamilton Hotel, where they discussed the situation in the city and the need for a strong union front. Lewis, who is the president of the United Mine Workers, urged the CIO members to stand united against the A F of L.

The A F of L members, on the other hand, gathered at the Hotel Hamilton to discuss the same issues. They were led by John J. Raftery, the local leader of the union. Raftery expressed his confidence in the A F of L and its ability to handle the situation in Cincinnati.

The rivalry between the two unions has been a source of contention in Cincinnati for some time. Both unions claim to represent the workers in the city, and they have been fighting for control of the labor movement.

The CIO organizers are planning a series of meetings in Cincinnati to discuss the situation and to plan for the future. They are also planning a mass rally in the city to show their strength and to demand recognition from the employers.

The A F of L members are also planning a series of meetings in Cincinnati. They are also planning a mass rally in the city to show their strength and to demand recognition from the employers.

Mystery Mike, McGuirk on Monday Wrestle Program

Mystery Mike, the unknown but tough hunk who hides his identity beneath a scarlet mask, will face the red test when he returns here next Monday night for the wrestling program at the State gymnasium. Mike will find plenty of opposition coming out of the locker room in the form of Lelloy McGuirk, pride of Sylvania City, and one-time champion of the Ohio State wrestling team.

Mike and McGuirk will meet in one of the pair of 90-minute featured bouts with the best of three to win. An old-time returning to the Mat, McGuirk is the other headline bout. Robert Montgomery, who has just completed a successful career of the southern states, is scheduled to appear in the same hour with the same opponent. McGuirk, although youthful in appearance, is a fine wrestler, as testified by his record of 10 wins and 10 losses in the National Wrestling League, which he has won in nearly two years.

McGuirk, who is the top position in the state for the Mystery man, when he was last week over the heavy, ex-military Bob Montgomery, although youthful in appearance, is a fine wrestler, as testified by his record of 10 wins and 10 losses in the National Wrestling League, which he has won in nearly two years.
